

SHARING A SMALL WORLD

Something New from ZPG's Acclaimed
Population Education Program
A Booklet of Charming Activities
for Very Young Learners

It's a "small world after all" and our youngest citizens are curious about all of the connections between people, all living things, and the home we call Earth. Now we've developed a teaching kit specifically for teachers of students in pre-K-grade 2 to make these connections come alive in fun, hands-on activities.

- Bake Earth Cookies to learn about land use.
- Play members of a forest community and see the Web of Life.
- Work to share a precious resource in Go Fish!
- And so much more!
