

EMPOWER HER, EMPOWER HUMANITY

The UN recognizes family planning as a universal human right. Yet, 214 million women in developing regions who want to avoid pregnancy have an unmet need for modern contraception.

Access to safe, affordable, voluntary family planning empowers women and is a key factor in global development.

